O livoris feritas
Que superna rogitas
Et jaces inferius

Fera pessima

Cur inter nos habitas?
Tua cum garrulitas
Nos affatur dulcius
Retro pungit seivius
Ut veneno scorpius

Fera Pessima

Scariothis falsitas
Latitat interius
Det mercedes Filius
Dei tibi debitas

Fera pessima

---

O savageness of envy
You who seek the heights
And lie in the depths

Most evil beast

Why do you dwell among us?
While your unceasing speech
Speaks to us the more sweetly
I sting the more savagely from behind
Like the poisonous scorpion

Most evil beast

The treachery of Iscariot
Lies hidden within
May the Son of God
Give you your just rewards

Most evil beast

-Guillaume de Machaut, 14th Century

Program Note

O Livoris Feritas (O Savageness of Envy) is a Latin setting of a text written by the famed 14th Century composer/poet Guillaume de Machaut. Widely know for his musical contributions to the Ars Nova movement, Machaut also wrote many poems and narrative texts. This particular text first appears in his own motet setting of the same name.

Here, the setting is an ominous one for unaccompanied male voices where improvisational elements, vocal glissandi and composed material are fused together to create a singular identity to the piece, while illuminating the near frightening character of the text.
